Maud Mulier jumped on her time-worn his for an evening hit at the dusty pike. An old drop frame of a 'way-down gear, With a rattie the sleeping dead could hear. The Judge came pounding along behind, Out airing his great judicial mind.

He noted the figure neat and trim, And graceful mution of hidden lim And he said to himself, in his grave delight: 'Whatsmatter with Maudie? She's all right!

He drew heside her, and asked her flat Why she rods such an old low cart as that. And she said salesisdy could ill support Such a wheel as the Judge of the District Coun He told her she could on a chainless ride, With a diamond frame, if she'd he his bride Or, if she would hust up his solo life, They would tandem together as man and wis Maud hit at the bait like a hungry trout, And the old Judgo smiled as he yankod her ou

They ride on a tandem now of course, But Maud has to work like a treadmill hors For the Judge has learned how to sit and shirl And let his darling do all the work.

He weighs two hundred and fifty-one. But the poor girl thinks it an even to And she often says, with a pain-rent heart "I wish I was back on my old ice cart!"
